IS IT A Buck or Cross-Cut Saw?

We have found that for several years in the month of November our sales of Buck and Cross Cut Saws were double those of any other three months.

Whether this is due to the approach of the wood sawing season or because at this time we offer exceptional values in saws we don't know, probably both. Any way our values should appeal to you. This is the way prices run on our Atkin's Buck and Cross Cut saws:

Buck Saws, 50c, 85c, 90c $1.25.
Cross Cut Saws, $1.50, $1.75, $1.85, $2.00, $3.00.

While hunting on a helpless mink caught in a trap Wednesday a minister with cat was shot by U.S. Senator of Chittenden and brought into Barre in the afternoon where it was sold to the Rochester Clothing store to be used for advertising purposes. Senator was examining his work traps along the banks of a stream, which flows near the house, in the early morning when he came upon the wild cat which had begun to devore a large mink caught in one of his traps.

Philadelphia has the home of living a great soul of the Revolution. It has long had a society of the Sons of the American Revolution, but in the last few years it has not had a member whose own father fought in that great war. Nathan Holden, of No. 6113 Walton street, son of Nathanial Holden, soldier of the Revolutionary War, has left the city. The new member was born in Fairlee, Orange county, July 4, 1827.
Nathanial Holden, his father, enlisted April 4, 1776, in the Massachusetts troop, under Capt. Phineas Wade and Col. Michael Jackson. He served with the troop until December 18, 1782.

SCOTCH GOLFER DROWNED.

Robert Dunlop's Body Found in Water Where It Had Been at Least a Week.

The body of Robert Dunlop, the Scottish professional golfer, was found in Van Courtlandt Lake, Kingsbridge, N. Y., Wednesday. Dunlop had been missing for several weeks and his body had been seen in the water for at least a week. He was about 27 years old and came to this country from Scotland last July, when he entered a championship match conducted under the auspices of the New York golf club. He stood fourth at the end of the match. Before the end of the golf season he was engaged as an instructor by the New York golf club and was employed in that capacity when he disappeared. It is believed that he fell into the lake while walking across the park at night.

DESPONDENT, HUNG HIMSELF.

Father Had Been Drinking Heavily—Formerly Tailor in Beaminster.

Conrad Fisher, 38, committed suicide at the police station in Pittsfield, Va., yesterday evening by strangling himself.
He was a yard long about his neck and fastened it with a single knot and then knotted the ends fastened to the other end of the rope about the frame of the hook in his cell and three steps forward so that the full weight came upon the rope.
He made no death struggle as he walked across the park at night.

Fisher was taken to the police station Saturday afternoon suffering from drinking tremors. At 2 o'clock Sunday he was attended by a physician, who left him some medicine. He was given the cell keys of the office and had the use of the corridor. He remained in the corridor until about 4 o'clock when he went into his cell and laid down.
The officer heard no noise from him and thought that the medicine he had given him slept before he had inclosed him. At 5:30 the doctor called again and going to the cell found Fisher in one corner dead.

Fisher was born in Germany was a tailor by trade, and up to going to Pittsfield about 20 years ago worked at his trade here for several years. He leaves a son. His wife died several years ago.

Facing Troubles.

"A large part of the troubles of life are unnecessary; they are created by ourselves, or donated to us by others.
If we are making fit our own interests, let us shut down the factory. If others are making them for us, let us reduce the friction of pain to a minimum. If others are cruel, inconsiderate or injurious to us, let us, so far as possible, accept it all for what it is worth, and feel that no one can really hurt us except ourselves; but let us ever be made keen to this lesson, that we never make others suffer in the way in which we have given pain.

There are times when the heart desires to turn to us as one outstretched hand almost touches it when the labor of years is swept away in a moment; when the friend upon whom we had counted as on our own right arm, proves disloyal; when our most honest efforts, our supreme struggles, meet defeat and buffeted and worn by the waves of failure, we are ready to give up in despair. Here is our opportunity for coolness, courage, calmness. We can then rise in the dignity of our self-pride and the fulness of our strength and meet it all bravely.

Our sunset does not make life any shorter; let the sun set; let the sunrise bring the dawn of new hope.
